DESIGN NOTES:

Local music guru David Basse assembled some of Kansas City's great contemporary jazz and blues artists on this Hot! compilation CD. Buster Designs filled the bill when it came time to package the sizzling sounds.

Hot! ignites with the legendary Jay McShann's final recording. Paired with trumpeter/vocalist Mark Pender, their performance represents a unique style born in the city Where Jazz and Blues Meet™ — Kansas City style at its finest.

The compilation then burns through track after track by the hottest KC jazz and blues artists ever to grace a stage and get an audience to their feet. The list reads like a who's who of contemporary KC jazz and blues musicians. The selections include some familiar favorites as well as a few rare treasures.

I'm honored to be part of this collection along with Everette DeVan, Bill Caldwell, Joe Cartwright, Kim Park, Doug Talley, Alaadeen, Kelley Hunt, Angela Hagenbach, DJT, and Grammy nominees Bobby Watson and Mike Melvojn.

This compilation is proudly presented to you by the Kansas City Area Development Council, reminding you to "Think KC" as you live, work and do business.

~ DAVID BASSE
